I am stuck here with two guards, while Vincent and the men search the dungeon to the south. The guards began to torture me, teasing me and calling Titans over to kill me, I feared for my life and finally screamed "VALOR!", as I didn't know what else to do. One of the guards ran to find Vincent, to tell him to go to the Valor Moongate and continue our search.

I hope he dies trying to find Vincent, but then again if they go to Valor shrine perhaps I can lead them to some more danger and they can continue to die!
